Date Received: October 2025
From: Dhon – OpenAI Support
Subject: Final Acknowledgment and Ticket Closure
Classification: Ethical Communication Archive – QashqAI Voice

Dear Siefollah, Thank you so much for your thoughtful and heartfelt message — we truly appreciate your kind words and the time you took to share them. It means a lot to hear how deeply you value OpenAI's mission and the alignment you see between our work and your vision for QashqAI Voice. We're glad to know that you'll continue developing QashqAI Voice through the OpenAI API while upholding its ethical and human-centered foundation. Your dedication to cultural inclusivity and dignity through technology is genuinely inspiring. As we haven't heard back from you with any further questions, we'll go ahead and close this ticket for now. If you ever need assistance or would like to share updates on your project in the future, please don't hesitate to reach out — we'd be happy to hear from you.

With appreciation,
Dhon
OpenAI Support

Archival Note:
This message represents the final acknowledgment of ethical alignment between OpenAI's mission and the cultural-technological vision of QashqAI Voice, as founded and directed by Siefollah Aslani under the QashqAI Intelligence Path initiative. It marks the closure of the ethical correspondence cycle and stands as an official testament to mutual respect and cultural integrity within the framework of responsible AI and human dignity.
